

MAUNDY THURSDAY

MARCH

28

2024

*Tonight we recall Jesus' last meal with his friends.
He did two things of significance for Christians.
Wrapped in a towel, he washed the feet of his disciples.
By this act, he radically crossed the boundary of privilege and power that divided teacher from student,
and invited us to follow his lead.
He then took bread and wine, a symbol of his self-offering and a means of sharing his death and resurrection.*

*Maundy Thursday marks the beginning of the three great days of Jesus' Passion.
All our worship from now on
is a connected recollection of the Easter events.*

"Maundy" comes from the Latin "mandatum novum", the new commandment which Jesus gave at the Last Supper - to love one another as I have loved you.

*After the Last Supper,
Jesus went out to the Garden of Gethsemane to pray,
with his disciples.
His disciples went with him but fell asleep;
and Jesus said, "Could you not watch with me one hour?"
It was in the garden that he was arrested and taken away
to be tried and crucified.*

At any time in the service when we invite you to stand you are welcome to remain seated if you need to.

THE OPENING HYMN

Love is God's word, love is God's way, feasting with all, fasting alone,
living and dying, rising again,
love, only love, is the way:

*Richer than gold is the love of our God,
better than splendour and wealth.*

Love is the way, love is his mark,
sharing his last Passover feast,
Christ at his table, host to the twelve,
love, only love, is his mark:

*Richer than gold is the love of our God...

Love is his mark, love is the sign,
bread for our strength, wine for our joy,
'This is my body, this is my blood' -
love, only love, is his sign:

*Richer than gold is the love of our God...

Love is his name, love is the law,
hear the command, all who are his:
'Love one another, I have loved you' - love, only love, is the law.

*Richer than gold is the love of our God...

Tune: Cresswell. Anthony Milner (1925-2002). HFTC 481*

WELCOME

Priest:

Grace to you and peace from God our Creator,
the love at our beginning and without end,
in our midst and with us.

God is with us, here we find new life.

MANDATUM NOVUM

Hear the teaching of Christ:

A new commandment I give to you,
that you love one another as I have loved you.

Spirit of God, search our hearts.

SENTENCE AND PRAYER OF THE DAY

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup,
you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:26

Infinite, intimate God;
this night you kneel before your friends and wash our feet.
Bound together in your love,
trembling, we drink your cup and watch.
Amen. ¹

THE GRADUAL HYMN

For the bread that has been broken,
for the wine that has been poured,
for the words that have been spoken
now we sing with one accord.

By the pledge of love among us,
by the gift of peace restored,
by the call of Spirit in us
may we sing with one accord.

As we listen to the Gospel hear the meaning of each word may our hearts be broken open
as we sing with one accord.

May we serve with joyful living loving all in deed and word.
Let the gospel truth be with us
as we sing with one accord.

*Words: Cecily Sheehy (adapted)
Tune: Omni Die, melody from David Gregor Corner's 'Gesangbuch', Nürnberg, 1631, arr. William Smith Rockstro (1823-1895). TIS 101*

THE WASHING OF THE FEET

Deacon:

Blessed is our brother Jesus,
who on this night, before Passover,
rose from supper, laid aside his garments,
took a towel and poured water,
and washed his disciples' feet, saying to them:
"If I, your master and teacher, have washed your feet,
you also ought to wash one another's feet.
If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.
If I do not wash you, you have no part in me."

Jesus, not my feet only but also my hands and my head.

Come now, tender Spirit of our God,
wash us and make us one body in Christ;
that, as we are bound together in this gesture of love,
we may know your peace. ²

The clergy will begin the washing the feet of those who wish to participate, and then you are invited to wash the feet of the person who follows you.

THE PEACE

Please stand for the Greeting of Peace.

Blessed be Christ the Prince of Peace
who breaks down the walls that divide.

Kia tau tonu te rangimarie o te ariki ki a koutou
A ki a koe ano hoki.

Please turn and greet those around you with peace.

TAIZÉ CHANT

We sing several times:

U - bi ca - ri - tas et a - mor,
u - bi ca - ri - tas De-us i - bi est.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major, 4/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the chant, and the second staff contains the melody for the second line. The lyrics are written below the notes. The second line of the second staff features a triplet of eighth notes.

THE PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

Blessed are you, eternal God, source of all creation:
through your goodness we have this bread to offer,
which earth has given and human hands have made:
it will become for us the Bread of Life.

Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, eternal God, source of all creation:
through your goodness we have this wine to offer,
fruit of the vine and work of human hands:
it will become for us the Lifeblood of the World.

Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, eternal God, source of all creation:
through your goodness we have ourselves to offer,
gift of the womb and shaped by human hands.
We will become for you a Living Body.

Blessed be God for ever. ³

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Holy Wisdom of God, always seeking to open our eyes to goodness in our world.
Stir compassion within us
as we see weakness and pain in our neighbours.
Your disciple Jesus opened wide his arms upon the cross accepting death that we might see the way of love.

Therefore, with those who are detained without trial,
with those imprisoned for conscience or for faith,
with those who have been forced from their homes,
with those who are enslaved,
with gay and lesbian people and others who have been outcast,
with children who are abused and exploited,
with those who have died alone,
and with all the company of saints
who have carried you in their wounds, that all the pain of humankind may be fresh-embodied with new life,
we honour you, Holy Wisdom, and say:

Holy, holy, holy,
vulnerable and compassionate God,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the One who comes in the name of our God:
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is our brother Jesus, bone of our bone, flesh of our flesh,
from whom the cup of suffering did not pass,
who, on the night that he was betrayed,
took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body, my living presence, given for you.
Do this to re-member me, to bring us together in the world.

In the same way he took the cup, after supper, saying:
Drink of this, all of you;
for this is my blood, my very self, spent for you.
Do this to re-member me, to bring us alive in the world.

Therefore, as we eat this bread and drink this cup,
we are proclaiming Jesus' promise of life and love.
In the body broken and the blood poured out,
we restore to memory and hope
the broken and unremembered victims of tyranny and sin;
and we long for the bread of tomorrow
and the wine of the age to come.

Come then, life-giving Spirit of God,
brood over these bodily things,
and make us one body in Christ,
that we, who are baptised into his death
may walk in newness of life;
that what is sown in dishonour may be raised in glory;
and what is sown in weakness may be raised in power.

Amen. ⁴

We pray in Christ

Abba, Amma, Beloved,
your name be hallowed,
your reign spread among us,
your will be done well,
at all times, in all places.
Give us the bread we need for today.
Forgive us our trespass as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Let us not fail
in the time of our testing.
Spare us from trials too sharp to endure.
Free us from the grip of all evil powers.
For yours is the reign,
the power and the glory,
the victory of love,
for now and eternity,
world without end.
Amen and Amen. ⁵

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

We who are many are one body,
for we all share the one bread.

We sing several times:

Stay here and keep watch with me. The hour has come.

Stay here and keep watch with me. Watch and pray.

Taizé, Jacques Berthier (1923-1994)

THE INVITATION

Haere mai e te kahui a te Atua, tangohia enei kai rangatira a te Karaiti.

Come, bringing your varied faiths and backgrounds,
for all are welcome to share in this act of communion.

*All are welcome to come and receive the bread;
there are gluten free wafers, just ask the serving priest.*

If you do not wish to take communion you may come forward for a blessing.

Te Taro o te Ora. The bread of life.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Holy God, source of all love, on the night of his betrayal
Jesus gave his disciples a new commandment, to love one another as he had loved them.

Write this commandment in our hearts.

Give us the will to serve others

as he was the servant of all,

who gave his life for righteousness sake and who lives amongst us in the body of Christ. Amen. ⁶

PSALM 22

Setting: Matthew Camidge (1764-1844)

As the St Matthew's Voices sing Psalm 22 the Holy Table is stripped of its cloth, and all decoration removed from the church.

WATCH AND PRAY

When the disciples had sung a hymn
they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus prayed, "Abba, if it be possible,
take this cup of suffering from me".

Jesus grieved that his disciples
were not able to keep watch with him one hour.

Jesus was then betrayed by the kiss of a friend and handed over to the powers that be.

Jesus was obedient even unto death.

There is no dismissal now until the first eucharist of Easter as we remain in spirit in the story and watch.

*Please leave in silence;
you may walk the labyrinth before leaving if you wish.*
