PROCESSIONAL HYMN

One in love, we meet together, one in time, and never apart.
We in flesh as brother, sister, makes us one in mind and heart.
All incarnate, we would offer,
all we most sincerely prize, learning though traditions differ how they join to make us wise.

One in outlook, always searching,
not to bind in common creed,
as a people, be more ready to respond to other's need.
Here we are so finely fashioned, understanding, here to serve,
never narrow in compassion,
empathy without reserve.

As in Christ, may we discover that to give is to receive,
that in God the good is present,
ever, always we perceive.
Not by chance the world's creation,
not by chance was life begun, God is love and our vocation is to love 'til love has won.

Words: adapted by Betty Van Till/C3Ex Tune: Hyfrydol, melody by Rowland Huw Prichard (1811-1887). TIS 217(i)

Silence

God of life,
in our indifference and helplessness
we destroy your creation;
we condone violence and ignore suffering;
we do not act with compassion and justice.
Breathe on us, God, this day,
that we might be whole again. ³

Priest: God forgives us, forgive others,
forgive yourself.

THE SENTENCE AND PRAYER OF THE DAY

God chose us in Christ
to be holy and blameless before him in love.

Ephesians 1:4

God of the prophets,
whose word cuts through the webs of power and holds the tyrant to account:
be with all who raise their voice against oppression and misrule, who are imprisoned and abused
for freedom's sake;
help us to stand and speak with them and witness to your kingdom now; through Jesus Christ, the name above all others. Amen. ⁴

PSALM 85:8-13

Chant: Henry Smart (1813-1879)

Let me hear what you will say O Lord, for you will speak peace to your people,
to your servants whose hearts are turned to you.

For deliverance is at hand for those who fear you,
so that your glory may dwell in our land.

³ Jenny Blood

⁴ Steven Shakespeare

Mercy and faithfulness have met together, justice and peace have embraced each other.

Faithfulness will spring up from the ground, and righteousness will look down from heaven.

You Lord will give prosperity,
and our land shall yield its harvest.

Justice shall go before you,
and the path for your feet shall be peace.

THE PEACE

Please stand for the Greeting of Peace.

Kia tau tonu te rangimarie o te Ariki ki a koutou.

[The peace of Christ be always with you. And also with you.]

Please turn and greet those around you with peace.

THE OFFERTORY HYMN ⁷

I come with joy, a child of God, forgiven, loved, and free,
the life of Jesus to recall,
in love laid down for me.

I come with Christians far and near
to find, as all are fed,
the new community of love
in Christ's communion bread.

As Christ breaks bread, and bids us share,
each proud division ends.
The love that made us, makes us one,
and strangers now are friends.

The spirit of the risen Christ, unseen, but ever near,
is in such friendship better known,
alive among us here.

Together met, together bound by all that God has done, we'll go with joy, to give the world the love that makes us one.

All

It is right to give you thanks, Creator of all, for your voice alone brought light and life to birth when all began.
You called each one of us to be,
and named us with the name that you alone could speak.
You called us to be lovers of creation, and to care for each other as you had cared for us.

But we betrayed your trust and we in turn became the victims of betrayal.
 The bond of trust became the bondage of division:
 male and female, Jew and Gentile, slave and free, oppressor and oppressed.
 Yet you in your love did not desert us,
 but instead Jesus came among us to seek us out,
 to gather in the lost and outcast.
 He threw open the doors of freedom, casting out the darkness of our hearts and greeting us as God's beloved friends and children.
 In place of judgment, Jesus gave us compassion;
 in place of condemnation, healing.
 And even as he came to share our suffering,
 he called us to be witnesses,
 to follow in the way that led to the cross;
 and to see with our own eyes the depths of your forgiveness.
 Therefore, with all that have life in him, we praise you and sing:

⁴
 Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly One, God of po-wer and might Heav'n and Earth are full of Your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
²
 Bless the One who comes in the pow'r of love. Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na in the high - est!
³

On the night before he died,
our friend and brother Jesus took bread,
and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it and gave it to the disciples and said:
“Take, eat: This is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks,
he gave it to the disciples and said:
“Drink of this, all of you.
This is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, loving God, we offer this bread and wine, giving thanks for his death and resurrection:

Now, as was promised, send us your loving Spirit, that this bread and this cup may represent the life-giving presence of your Christ, and make us one in your covenant of love, proclaiming the freedom of new life, as together we sing: ⁸

Blessing and hon-our and glo - ry be Yours, here and ev-ry -where now and for - ev - er, A - men.
