EPIPHANY 2

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Christ, you give the great commission:

"Heal the sick and preach the word."

Lest the Church neglect its mission and the gospel go unheard,
help us witness to your purpose
with renewed integrity;

with the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

Christ, you call us to your service:

"In my name baptize and teach."

That the world may trust your promise, life abundant meant for each,
give us all new fervor, draw us
closer in community;

with the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

Christ, you bless with words assuring:

"I am with you to the end."

Faith and hope and love restoring,
may we serve as you intend,
and, amid the cares that claim us,
hold in mind eternity;

with the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

Words: Jeffery W. Rowthorn, adapted Tune: Abbot's Leigh, Cyril Vincent Taylor (1907-1991). TIS 153

WELCOME

Come people of God,
turn your hearts and minds to the light of Christ
even as we turn to the warmth of our summer sun.
Let us be ready to welcome the events and the people who may become turning points in our lives.

We welcome with eyes and hearts open,
ready to see God present in our summer world;
in the people we meet and in the things we do.

Liturgist: This is what God asks of you:
to act justly, to love tenderly,
and to walk humbly upon our earth.

God of grace,
in whom we live and move and dance for joy,
guide our steps through the complexities of life;
widen our vision that our sight be not limited
by what we see, nor our wisdom by what we know, nor our love by what we can accept. Amen.

THE GLORIA

Glorious are you, Mystery of Life, essence of all creation.

You are the symphony of stars and planets.

You are the music of the atoms within us.

You are the dawn on mountain peaks,
the moonlight on evening seas.

Forest and farm, the rush of the city,
everything is embraced in your love.

Glorious are you, O Jesus Christ,
Cosmic love in human flesh.

You graced the smallness of time and place
to teach us to dance to the music.

You walk on our seas and heal in our streets.

You make your home in our lives,
revealing that cross and resurrection
are one on the road to freedom.

Glorious are you, O Spirit of Truth, wisdom and breath of our being.

You are the wind that sweeps our senses.

You are the fire that burns in our hearts.

You are the needle of the inner compass,
always pointing to true North,

guiding us on the sacred dance
into the Mystery of Life. ¹

Please be seated.

RECONCILIATION

In this time of quiet
we invite you to reflect on life this holiday season.
Bring into the presence of God, in this place,
the joys and and burdens you carry with you this morning.
If you need forgiveness, seek it in the renewing love of God.
If you need healing, or courage, or wisdom,
seek it in the peace of God.

Jesus says,
“Ask, and it will be given to you;
search, and you will find;
knock, and the door will be opened for you”

Luke 11:9

Silence.

Gracious God,
give us the wisdom to hold to what we need,
grace to let go of those things that we can do without,
and a vision of your breadth, height, and depth
that will challenge our smallness of heart,
and bring us humbly together.

Priest:

Spirit of God hold us,
Spirit of God move us, Spirit of God burn within us,
so that we may light up the world with your love.

SENTENCE AND PRAYER FOR THE DAY

O God, you have searched me and known me.
I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Wonderful are your works; that I know very well.

Psalm 139:1, 14

Praise to you God, for all your work among us.
Yours is the vigour in creation,
yours is the impulse in our new discoveries.
Make us adventurous, reverent and hopeful in all we do,
Amen.²

THE FIRST READING

A reading from the First Book of the prophet Samuel.

1 Samuel 3:1-10

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Thanks be to God.

THE GRADUAL HYMN

Fill now my life, O faithful God,
in every part with praise,
that my whole being may proclaim your being and your ways.

Not for the lip of praise alone,
nor yet the praising heart
I ask, but for a life made up of praise in every part:

praise in the common things of life,
its goings out and in;
praise in each duty and each deed,
exalted and unseen.

² NZPB p 613

So shall no part of day and night
from sacredness be free;
but all my life with you, my God,
my fellowship will be.

*Words: Horatius Bonar (1808-1889) alt.
Tune: Richmond, later form of melody by Thomas Haweis (1734-1820), adapted by Samuel Webbe the younger (c.1770-1843). TIS 425*

THE GOSPEL

Hear the Gospel of Christ according to John, chapter one, beginning at verse forty-three.

Shine on our pathways.

John 1:43-51

This is the Gospel of Christ.

May we hear wisdom.

THE SERMON

REFLECTIVE MUSIC

Please stand.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

You, O God, are supreme and holy.
You create our world and give us life.
Your purpose overarches everything we do.
You have always been with us. You are God.
You, O God, are infinitely generous,
good beyond all measure.
You came to us before we came to you.
You have revealed and proved
your love for us in Jesus Christ,
who lived and died and rose again.
You are with us now. You are God.
You, O God, are Holy Spirit.
You empower us to be your gospel in the world.
You reconcile and heal; you overcome death.
You are our God. We worship you. ³

Please be seated.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us be still and mindful of the world, the Church,
this nation, our communities, and ourselves.

THE PEACE

Please stand for the Greeting of Peace.

Blessed be Christ the Prince of Peace who breaks down the walls that divide.
The peace of God be always with you and also with you.

Please turn and greet those around you with peace.

³ NZ Prayer Book, p. 481

OFFERTORY HYMN ⁴

Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?

Will you go where you don't know,
and never be the same?

Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown
in you, and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide
if I but call your name?

Will you quell the fear inside,
and never be the same?

Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

Christ, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you,
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you, and you in me.

*Words: John L. Bell (b. 1949) and Graham Maule (b. 1958)
Tune: Kelvingrove, Traditional Scottish melody, arr. Christopher Tambling.

THE PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

God, accept your people's gifts,
not gold, frankincense or myrrh,
but hearts and voices raised in praise of you,
our light and our hope.

Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Spirit is here.

God's hope is in us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks to the God of peace.

It is right to offer thanks and praise.

All honour and praise be yours always and everywhere,
creator, ever-living God,
through Jesus Christ your only Son:
for at this time we celebrate your revelation in our midst.
In the coming of the Magi
Jesus was revealed to the nations.

In the waters of baptism he was revealed as your Son,
sent among us.

In the water made wine
the new creation was revealed at the wedding feast.
Poverty was turned to riches, sorrow into joy.

Therefore with all the angels of heaven
we lift our voices in joyful words of praise:

Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and just,
glory and goodness come from you.
Glory to you most high and gracious God.

On that night before he died
Jesus took bread and gave you thanks.
He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:

Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper, he took the cup, and gave you thanks.
He gave it to them and said:

Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all,
to forgive sin; do this to remember me.

As this bread was scattered and then gathered and made one;
so may we be gathered into your kingdom.

Glory to you, O God, for ever.

Wisdom has built her a house;
she has mixed her wine; she has set her table.

Glory to you, O God, for ever.

Send your Holy Spirit,
that we who receive Christ's body
may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share his cup
draw strength from the one true vine.

Praise, glory and love be yours,
this and every day, from us and all people,
here and everywhere. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE BLESSING

NOTICES

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Forth in your name, O God, I go,
my daily labour to pursue,
you, God, alone resolved to know,
in all I think, or speak, or do.

Each task your wisdom has assigned still let me cheerfully fulfil,
in all my works your presence find,
and prove your good and perfect will.

You may I set at my right hand,
whose eyes inmost substance view,
and labour on at your command,
and offer all my works to you.

Give me to bear your easy yoke,
and every moment watch and pray,
and still to things eternal look,
and hasten to your glorious day;

for you delightfully employ
all that your bounteous grace has given,
and run my course with even joy,
and closely walk with you to heaven.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Tune: Song 34, arr. from melody and bass of Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625).

TiS 571

Deacon from the rear of the church:

Go now to live the Gospel. Go in peace.

Amen. We go in the power of Love.
